

In accordance with the EMUNI University Work Programme 2009 and the decisions adopted at the 2nd Senate session on 26 and 27 June 2009, EMUNI University is issuing a Call for Notification of Already Accredited¹ Study Programmes_2-09.

NAME AND SEAT OF THE UNIVERSITY

EMUNI University, Sončna pot 20, SI-6320 Portorož, Slovenia.

GENERAL ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS

Institutions which are eligible to apply:

- a) Members of EMUNI University,
- b) Institutions which will become members in November 2009.

GENERAL AIMS

- To enhance the cooperation between higher education institutions in the field of research and implement and/or develop the study programmes.
- To contribute to the intercultural dialogue, open learning and teaching opportunities of the Union for the Mediterranean (UfM) and contribute to the integration of Euro-Mediterranean Higher Education Area.
- To promote diversity and equal opportunities in the field of education.
- To stimulate the mobility of professors and students from all over the world, especially from Euro-Mediterranean countries.
- To build a challenging and innovative teaching and learning environment that will attract outstanding students.
- To develop training-professional programmes in line with the UfM priorities.

NOTIFICATION OF ALREADY ACCREDITED STUDY PROGRAMMES WITH EMUNI CONTRIBUTION

Specific aims and expected results:

The objective is to adopt study programmes also in the framework of EMUNI University and to add a Euro-Mediterranean context to the study programme. The Senate of EMUNI University has the right to make modifications of the study programme to ensure that it is compatible with EMUNI by adding a new course/module to the study programme, i.e. the course/module Euro-Mediterranean Studies (10 ECTS credits). With this course/module the students will gain the cultural and technical competences for interpreting the principles, history and achievements of Euro-Mediterranean Relations. In addition, students will be able to examine trends in the intersection of humanities and social studies. In order to comply with the Slovenian legislation, EMUNI University reserves the right to change conditions for enrolment, selection criteria in case of limited enrolment, conditions for completing the programme, professional and/or academic title, add new professors to the programme, decide on location of implementation of the study programme. The programme will be notified at the Council for Higher Education of the Republic of Slovenia. At a later stage, it will be performed as a joint study programme and after conclusion of the programme the students will receive a double degree, issued by the applicant institution and EMUNI University. The programmes can be delivered in English or French language.

¹ In accordance with the amendments of the Higher Education Act (Article 32, ZViS-F, OG RS, no. 64/08) EMUNI University can propose in notification study programmes, already accredited in Member States of the European Union and other countries if the diplomas issued in the accreditation country have the nature of a public document, provide a verified level of education in this country and a verified title, and are performed in the accreditation country by verified organisations.

Procedure:

- Adoption of the Already Accredited Study Programmes with EMUNI modifications at the Senate of EMUNI University at its session in November 2009.
- Notification of the study programme at the Council for Higher Education of the Republic of Slovenia in the beginning of 2010.
- Performance of the joint study programme will be proposed in the Academic Year 2010/11 according to the Work Programme of EMUNI University.

Application deadline:

The application deadline is 15 October 2009. The applications need to be submitted on the prescribed application form with obligatory enclosures and should be sent by regular mail to EMUNI University, Sončna pot 20, 6320 Portorož, Slovenia and by e-mail to blanka.palcic@emuni.si. Only duly completed applications signed by the legal representative of the applicant institution can be accepted.

Selection process:

Submitted applications will be reviewed and evaluated by the Senate Commission for study affairs. The Senate will adopt the study programmes at its session in November 2009. The decision of the Senate is final, no further appeals are possible.

Notification of acceptance: 15 December 2009.

Formal selection conditions:

- Each applicant can submit up to 3 master study programmes and up to 2 doctoral study programmes.
- The programme needs to be linked to the areas which are the priorities of the UfM (Depollution of the Mediterranean, Maritime and Land Highways, Civil Protection, Alternative Energies, Higher Education and Research, Mediterranean Business Development Initiative) or to themes specially identified as such by EMUNI.
- The programme needs to be already accredited according to the national legislation, the degree issued needs to have the nature of a public document and provide a verified level of education in applicant country and a verified title.

Financial applications:

No costs will be covered in the phase of submission of proposals for study programmes. When the programme will be implemented as a joint study programme, EMUNI University will support the programme with scholarships for students and cover the mobility costs for professors.

SUBMISSION OF APPLICATIONS

The applicant institution needs to use the prescribed application form.

The applications with obligatory enclosures should be submitted by regular mail to EMUNI University, Sončna pot 20, 6320 Portorož, Slovenia and by e-mail (depends on the particular project).

Documents:

- AccredFormAASp_2-09-I-EN

Obligatory enclosures:

- A copy of the resolution of the Senate and/or the National authority (other body) that adopted the study programme

- Documentation regarding the study programme (expert's detailed report) in the form that is required in accordance with your legislation and is a basis for accreditation of the study programme,
- The programme of the Academic Year 2008/09
- National legislation that regulated the accreditation of higher education study programmes (and all further amendments to the legislation)
- A legalized declaration of the Rector stating that all the documentation provided is truthful, diploma issued has the nature of a public document and provides a verified level of education in the country and a verified title (original signed document)
- Specification (syllabus) of the courses/modules within the study programme in English language
- Short CVs of professors involved in the study programme (up to 100 words)
- Declaration of the National Information Centre(s)- ENIC NARIC or equivalent National Body that your HE institution and the submitted study programme are already accredited in your country.