

Dear Dr. Dingley, The University of Kurdistan-Hawler

The University of Kurdistan - Hawler (UK-H) is a public university funded by the Kurdistan Regional Government and its curriculum is taught exclusively in English. It is a new, expanding, multicultural initiative, seeking excellence and international standards of education, with emphasis on nurturing leadership capabilities, enabling young people in the region to have an impact on their society, and becoming future leaders.

The university is inviting applications from suitably qualified candidates to fill anticipated positions in the following disciplines:

1. Academic Disciplines

Mathematics, Statistics, Computer Science, Business, Management, Economics, Politics, International Relations, Public Administration, Social Sciences, Natural Resources, Economic Geology, Hydrology/hydrogeology, Soils, Geo-informatics and Geo/Petroleum Sciences.

All academic candidates are expected to be Ph.D. holders and fluency in reading, writing and speaking English is a must.

Candidates selected for potential positions will enjoy an excellent benefits package which includes a competitive (tax free) salary, a furnished apartment as well as a pension allowance, medical allowance, relocation allowance, home visit allowance and child education allowance.

2. Administration Opportunities

The administration of the university is divided into 2 sections: the Registry and the Resources Divisions.

The Registry invites applications from pro-active, hands on, experienced administrators who enjoy mentoring others to achieving high standards in their work and who want to make a difference. The Registry is seeking to further enhance its systems, procedures, manuals, in the following areas: Committee Servicing, Student Recruitment, Registration, Records, Timetabling, External Examiners, Examination & Assessment, Courses Handbook, Course Approval & Evaluation, Student Discipline, Welfare & Counselling including Degree Congregations, Database Development, Statistical Analyses, Teaching Quality Assurance and Accreditation.

The Resources Division invites applications to the sub divisions of Finance, Budgets & Payroll, Human Resources, Estates and Facilities Management, Media & Public Relations and Information Systems Services.

If you are interested in making a speculative application please forward a full C.V. to:
info@ukh.ac