

Opportunità

European Academy of Yuste Foundation - European Research and Mobility Grants 2009

01 dicembre 2017

European Academy of Yuste Foundation - European Research and Mobility Grants 2009

The European Academy of Yuste Foundation announces ten European research and mobility grants for European Studies 'Charles V European Award 2008-Simone Veil' and its 'V Summer Doctoral Seminar on contemporary European multidisciplinary studies', with the academic support from the SEGEI (SocioEconomic Governance and European Identity) Research Network, and the University of Extremadura, which will take place at the Royal Monastery of Yuste and Palace of Charles V (Extremadura, Spain) in July 2009.

This European grants announcement, related to the 'Charles V European Award 2008-Simone Veil', is addressed to European students working on a Ph. D. Dissertation in history, political sciences, economics, law and other human and social sciences or in other scientific fields, on the "Memories and places of Memory of Europe", who have not enjoyed a 'Charles V European Award grant' in the past.

The European research and mobility grants for European Studies 'Charles V European Award 2008-Simone Veil' of the European Academy of Yuste Foundation are aimed at supporting the necessary research to prepare the contribution to be submitted at the summer doctoral seminar, the researchers' travel to participate in the seminars organised in the framework of the 2008-2009 grants edition, and to publish the final version of their contributions.

Candidates should submit their applications from December 16, 2008 to February 6, 2009.

The announcement and the application forms in Spanish, English and French can be found at the European Academy of Yuste Foundation's web: www.fundacionyuste.es