Dear Colleague,

We are pleased to present the Second Announcement and Call for Abstracts for the 23rd ICDE World Conference on Open and Distance Learning including the 2009 EADTU Annual Conference.

We plan to organise a highly interactive and flexible event. Therefore we rely on your submissions of abstracts.

Please take notice of the attached Second announcement and Call for Abstracts for further information or download the documents from the conference website at www.ou.nl/icde2009.

Regarding the Call for Abstracts the following dates are important:

Opening Call for Abstracts: 15 June 2008 Closing Call for Abstracts: 1 October 2008

For the status of the conference and the latest news please consult the conference website.

Visiting Maastricht means coming to one of the nicest cities in the Netherlands and being only a few hours away from some of the major European centres of art and culture.

We look forward to receiving your abstract and to meeting you at the 23rd ICDE World Conference on Open and Distance Learning, including the 2009 EADTU Annual Conference.

Welcome to Maastricht on behalf of the Programme Committee and

Prof. Fred Mulder, Scientific Chair and Rector Open Universiteit Nederland Prof. Frits Pannekoek,

President ICDE and President Athabasca University

Piet Henderikx, Secretary General EADTU

Kind regards, on behalf of the Programme Committee and the Local Organising Committee

Jos Rikers
Chair Local Organizing Committee
23rd ICDE World Conference on Open and Distance Learning including the 2009 EADTU
