Dear Colleagues,

This year we organise the 7th International Conference of Computational Methods in Sciences and Engineering 2009 (ICCMSE 2009), in the Hotel Rodos Palace, Rhodes, Greece, 28 September - 03 October 2009. URL address: http://www.iccmse.org (this is a preliminary form of the Web page).
Please circulate the following announcement, call for papers, sessions and minisymposia to your colleagues.

For this conference I mention the following:

1. During ICCMSE 2009 the following Lectures will take place:

Distinguished Lectures for ICCMSE 2009:
Ernest R.Davidson
George C.Schatz

Highlighted Keynote Speakers for ICCMSE 2009:
Markus Meuwly
Henry F.Schaefer III
Kizashi Yamaguchi

2. Proceedings: We are proud to announce that the Proceedings of ICCMSE 2009 will be published in the very famous AIP (American Institute of Physics) Conference Proceedings.

. Invited Papers will be published in a Special Volume of the AIP (American Institute of Physics) Conference Proceedings

. Short papers (4 A4 pages) will be published in a Special Volume of the AIP (American Institute of Physics) Conference Proceedings

3. During the Conference, Award(s) will be given to the Best Student Paper(s). Subject Areas: Computational Mathematics, Computational Medicinal Chemistry, Computational Chemistry, Computational Physics, Computational Engineering

Candidates are young scientists: Graduate students (or with a recently completed PhD thesis)
The interested young scientists must: (1) Send their extended abstract for peer review, (2) Express their interest for the participation in the competition, (This must be done at the (1) stage), (3) Present their paper in ICCMSE.
AIP Conference Proceedings will publish 2 Volumes for ICCMSE 2009. The First Volume contains the papers of Invited Lecturers and Second Volume contains the short papers of the participants

4. The session and symposium organisers have free registration.
Please circulate the following announcement, call for papers, sessions and minisymposia and leaflet to your colleagues.

If you want leaflets and posters for ICCMSE 2009, please send your request to tsimos.conf@gmail.com and a carbon copy to: tsimos.conf09@gmail.com

Leaflets can be obtained at: http://www.iccmse.org

Sincerely yours,
Professor Dr. T.E. Simos, Chair and Organiser ICCMSE
